Prague, Vienna and Budapest – June 15th to 23rd. 8 days and 9 nights. Three of the most beautiful cities in Europe! The old town in Prague is known as Disneyland for adults. Also known as the Capital of Bohemia. The buildings in all three are magnificent and of course the pastries in Vienna are world famous. You have to have a Sachertorte, a delicious chocolate cake. Any luck and we will hear an orchestra play Strauss in an opera house. Budapest has magnificent parliament buildings, St Stephen's basilica, house of terror and more. Of course the food is interesting and the different cultures are interesting. Prague and Budapest were behind the iron curtain. We travel by rail between the three cities. Tourists must be able to walk reasonable distances. Included are flights from and to South Africa, rail travel, hotels, day tour guides and breakfast only. The thinking in Europe is that lunch and dinners are preferable in small eateries where you can enjoy the local cuisine and not in the hotels. Meals in Prague and Budapest cost about the same as ours, Vienna is another story. Exclusions are entry visas, personal spend and tips and optional tours.
